

BROWSER

Events to drop in on, from regatta to open-air theatre

sylviathompson
sthompson@irishtimes.com

DUBLIN

Dun Laoghaire Regatta

Join the festival atmosphere across the waterfront and in Dún Laoghaire town as four sailing clubs, 400 boats and 2,500 competitors come together for the biennial event; Dún Laoghaire Motor Yacht Club, Royal Irish Yacht Club, Royal St George Yacht Club and National Yacht Club, Thurs, Dún Laoghaire, dlregatta.org

The People's Park Market

Stroll by the sea and then have lunch in the park, courtesy of this popular outdoor craft and food market, People's Park, Dún Laoghaire, Sun 11am-4pm

Oceans Apart from the Irish Youth Choir

A performance of works by Byrd, De Monte, Mäntyjärvi, Holst and MacMillan, directed by Greg Beardsell, Sun 8pm, St Mary's Cathedral, Limerick 061 331549, online at uch.ie, and Mon 8pm, Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, 01-6778099, christchurchcathedral.ie

Public Tours of Yeats Exhibition at the National Library

Weekly guided tours through The Life and Works of William Butler Yeats, Thurs 2pm, National Library, Kildare St, Dublin, nli.ie

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes

Chapterhouse Theatre Company perform an open-air theatrical adaptation of this work by Arthur Conan Doyle, Sat 7pm, Avondale House, Rathdrum, Co Wicklow, €16/€11, 01-2724030 mermaidartscentre.ie

